*> personal profile

I have just graduated from RMIT with a Bachelor of Graphic Design. Through my course I have navigated through understanding the Adobe Creative Cloud suite, client briefs, publishing document navigation, image-making techniques, audio-reactive visuals and more. I have learnt many key skills through my time on this course, specifically discipline and organisation. I engaged in many work reviews and collaborative projects so I have a high understanding of clear communication and teamwork in a design context. I have also engaged in a casual/part-time retail leadership role during my time at university, gaining a lot of time management, fast-thinking and strong leadership skills during that time.
